

11 Months

Cruises around his playpen or crib, or walks holding on to furniture

Affect

More fearful

Less smiling

More crying

10-12 Months

Vocalizations

Increases imitation of syllables and sounds

Echolalia appears (unintentional repetition)

Accompanies vocalizations with gestures

Some acquire first true words

Response to Sound

Will patty-cake when words are pronounced or rhythm of rhyme introduced

Attends to words pertaining to their specific need

Imitates tones sung by adult and sounds made by clocks, animals, etc.